

End your day at the historic Balsam Mountain Inn, listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Off Interstate 40 near the Blue Ridge Parkway, this 46,000 square foot inn features 50 totally unique guestrooms and suites, each with its own private bathroom. Antique furniture and unique bedding decorate the rooms and crafts are for sale throughout the building. After all the hiking, splurge on dinner at the inn's fantastic Seven Springs at Balsam restaurant. An eclectic menu offers fun and interesting choices of fresh food and the coffee is to die for! Complimentary soaps that smell like balsam are a nice touch after a long day hiking. The bonus: a full breakfast (including the delicious coffee) is included in the nightly rate. Perfect to get you fueled up for another day of hiking!
